GIACOMO COSENTINO

PAU DUDEKULA

"Our bodies are the material with which to shape the infinite worlds of possibilities that the theater offers us. A wild freedom, violent truths, strong emotions and a fine line between what is life and what is dream: this is theater".

"Through humbleness and listening, I try to create an environment where difficulty is not a limit, but the opportunity to know ourselves better. Theater showed me this opportunity and I can help but give to it everything I have".

"Understanding movements is understanding our own nature".

Kairos - NFG is born from the collaboration of four people who by combining their interests engage in social work to create events, workshops and cultural exchanges for young people based on non-formal learning.
